2	Quibble the little fox woke up and stretched. He looked around. Another ordinary day, thought Quibble. Then he saw his shadow. It looked very big and very scary. Maybe today wouldn't be ordinary after all.
4	Just then, Quibble heard a noise. The noise was coming closer, so he hid behind a tree. Quibble saw a girl carrying a basket of berries. Oh, how Quibble wanted those berries! And he knew just how he was going to get them.
5	The girl's eyes grew wide when she saw the shadow of a terrible beast.
6	She dropped her basket and ran home as fast as she could.
9	At home, Amelia's older sister was waiting.

	“What took you so long?” asked Lettie. “We need to bring these muffins to Grandma. And where are the berries?” Amelia told Lettie all about the terrible beast. Lettie’s mouth dropped open. They had to go through the forest to get to Grandma’s house. What would they do?
10	The sisters knew Grandma would worry if they didn’t visit. So they bravely headed into the forest. They hadn’t gone far when they saw the scary shadow again.
12	Lettie dropped the muffins. The girls ran home as fast as they could. Their little sister Vivian was surprised to see them. “Why are you back so soon? And where are the muffins?” she asked. Lettie told Vivian about the scary beast that lived in the forest.

13	“A scary beast?” laughed Vivian. “There are no beasts in our forest.” “I’ll show you,” she said. The sisters headed into the forest. It wasn’t long before they saw the shadow again. Only this time it didn’t seem so scary.
14	The sisters stopped walking. Wait a minute, thought Vivian. She looked behind the bush. “You’re no beast!” she said. “Stop bothering my sisters!”
16	“Come on,” cried Lettie. “Let’s go pick some more berries!” Together, Amelia, Lettie, and Vivian headed into the forest.
