2	It was the first day of school. Pete felt scared. “I don’t want to go. How will I make friends?” he asked.
3	Pete walked to school. “Don’t be scared, Pete,” said his mom. “Peacocks are not shy.”
4	Pete went into school. He looked around. He did not know anyone.
5	Everyone sat down. “Let’s get to know each other,” said Miss Owler. “Who wants to go first?”
6	Leo walked to the front of the class. “I am Leo,” he said. “I am good at roaring!”

7	Bella went next. She said, "I am Bella. I am good at building."
8	Dora went next. She said, "I am Dora. I am good at swimming."
9	Miss Owler looked around. She saw Pete. Miss Owler was very wise. "It is time to go play, everyone," she said.
10	Miss Owler talked to Pete. She said, "Don't be shy. Open up. We are your friends."
11	Pete stood by himself. Bella walked up. "Do you want to play?" she asked.
12	"You're it!" said Bella. Dora and Leo joined the game.

	Pete was having fun!
13	When they got back to class, Miss Owler called his name. “Pete, what would you like to share?”
15	Pete stood up. He opened up very slowly. “I am Pete,” he said. “I am good at making friends.”
16	His new friends cheered him on. Pete was proud.
